Tradition and multi-generational experience are the main advantages of the Kowalski Brothers family company, whose beginnings date back to 1934. Appreciating the advantages of natural wood, our company has done everything to ensure that its customers receive the highest quality joinery. The greatest advantage of our products is the highest quality of the materials used and their natural beauty combined with the modern technology of the fittings used. Our products are a guarantee of quality, beauty, solid workmanship and safety. We also make unusual wooden structures according to the wishes of our customers.
